

the ministry to Panama, which would necessitate my remaining there a long time. It is easy to see how that construction of the facts in the case might have been applied, because no representative of the kind is now in Panama.

MALCONTENTS EXILED, SENT OUT OF PANAMA

COLON, Dec. 12.—About ninety prisoners from Panama arrived here at noon today, and an hour later they, in addition to eight others who were being held in the jail here, were placed on board the Spanish ship Buenos Ayres and sailed for Cartagena. The persons deported were malcontent Colombians without funds and who desired to return to their country and a few others suspected of disloyalty to the republic. The Buenos Ayres also had on her list a number of Colombian citizens bound from Lima to Lima to Cartagena.

COMING ELECTION IN THE NEW REPUBLIC

PANAMA, Dec. 12.—Considering the republic of Panama to be in complete peace the junta will to-morrow publish a decree convening a national convention for Jan. 15, 1904. This convention will elect a constitution and laws for the government of the republic. It will be composed of thirty-two representatives, four each from the provinces of Boca del Toro, Colon, Cocle, Veraguas, Los Santos and Chiriqui and eight for Panama. All males born within the boundaries of the new republic, who have reached the age of twenty-one years and reside on the isthmus, and all Colombians who have sworn allegiance to the republic, shall have the right to vote, unless they have been deprived of their rights of citizenship. Members of the junta, magistrates, the director of telegraphs and all public officials having authority throughout the republic, are barred from election to the convention. In the capital of each province there will be organized an electoral college, the members of which will be appointed by the junta. The voting will be direct and secret and the elections will take place Dec. 25.

COLOMBIANS AT MOUTH OF RIO ATRATO AGAIN

PANAMA, Dec. 12.—Advised received here from Cartagena say that the Colombian cruisers General Pinzon and Cartagena have landed 400 men, under Generals Bustamante and Ortiz, at Cape Tiburon, at the mouth of the Atrato river, with the object of cutting paths across the mountains to enable the Colombian troops to invade Panama. According to these advices there is in Cartagena a standing army of 1,000 men.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Consul Malmgren, from Colon, reports to the State Department by cable that the captain of the French steamer, which arrived at that port yesterday from Cartagena, reports that he was informed by an official at that port

Get My Book if Sick Don't Send a Penny

Don't send a penny. Just wait till you see what I can do. Let me take the risk. Let me prove up first what Dr. Shoop's Restorative can do. The Restorative will gain your friendship, your endorsement, if you test it. And for a whole month you can test it without the slightest risk.

I will tell you of a druggist near you who will furnish six bottles of

Dr. Shoop's Restorative A Month on Trial

I will absolutely stand all the cost if it fails. If you say, "It did not help me," that ends it as far as cost to you is concerned. Do you understand me? I am telling it as plainly, as clearly as I can. I want you to know absolutely and without doubt this offer is made on honor. I have the prescription that cures. My only problem is to convince you that Dr. Shoop's Restorative will cure—a common remedy. A common remedy could not stand a test like this. It would bankrupt the physician making the offer. And I am succeeding every where.

Thousands are accepting my offer and only one in four writes me that my remedy failed. Just think of it. 39 out of 40 get well, and these are difficult cases, too. And the fortieth has nothing to pay. That is a record I am proud of. It is wrong to stay sick when a chance like this is open. If well, you should tell others who are sick of my offer. Don't let a sick friend stay sick because he knows not of my offer. Tell him. Get my book for him. Do your duty. You may be sick yourself some time. Sick people need help. They appreciate sympathy and aid. Tell me of some sick friend. Let me cure him. Then he will show to both of us his gratitude. Your reward will be his gratitude. Send for the book now. Do not delay.

Simply state which book you want and address Dr. Shoop, Box 7790, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured with one or two bottles. At druggists.

Book No. 1 on Dyspepsia.
Book No. 2 on the Heart.
Book No. 3 on the Kidneys.
Book No. 4 for Women.
Book No. 5 for Men (sealed).
Book No. 6 on Rheumatism.

that 800 Colombian soldiers had embarked on the Colombian gunboats Cartagena and General Pinzon and sailed for the mouth of the Atrato river. The French captain's advice was dated Dec. 9 and it is assumed that these were the troops that since have abandoned the projected campaign against Panama. The French captain further reported that the Governor of Bolivar had rescinded the decree closing Cartagena and Savanilla to trade with Colon. The reason he gave for his action is regarded as having an important bearing on the future relations between Colombia and Panama, because he says that Bolivar has decreed that the dispute shall be settled diplomatically. This is taken to mean that there will be no hostilities. It is thought that this conclusion is the result of General Reyes's instructions.

COMMANDER J. E. CRAIG ACCUSED OF CRUELTY

Former Navy Fireman Sues Him for $25,000 Damages in the District of Columbia Courts.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia today Morgan Joseph, formerly a fireman in the United States navy, filed a suit against Commander Joseph Edgar Craig, U. S. N., in which he asks damages in the sum of $25,000 for what he describes as the "unjust, unwarranted and malicious treatment" he received at the hands of Commander Craig, who is now at the Norfolk navy yard.

The declaration of Joseph alleges that he was imprisoned under the instructions of Commander Craig and kept for some time under confinement; that the imprisonment was unjustified and illegal and that bodily and mental suffering was the result. On these grounds, and because of the indignity to which he was subjected and the humiliations he says he experienced, Joseph wants damages.

The several acts of Commander Craig mentioned are alleged to have been committed while Joseph was serving as a first-class fireman aboard the United States ship St. Mary's, which was ordered to sea under arrest, tried by summary court-martial and imprisoned in the ship's brig, besides being sentenced to lose pay. He was released from the brig Joseph alleges that he refused to go to work at reduced pay and was arrested, tried by summary court, convicted and imprisoned. This process, he alleges, was continued with scarcely any break for two years, beginning in the spring of 1901 and ending in December, 1902.

AMERICAN PRELATES
IN THE PHILIPPINES
The Vatican Expects Their Acts and Influence Will Make for Peace in the Church.

ROME, Dec. 12.—The Vatican expects that the actions of the American bishops sent to the Philippines, together with the work which Archbishop Guidi, the apostolic delegate for the Philippine islands, has already accomplished, will soon have the effect of definitely pacifying the natives and putting an end to the schism of "Bishop" Aglipay (the head of the new national church of the islands); also rendering it necessary to create new dioceses, partly owing to the distances in the islands and partly because of the reconstruction of the whole system of public worship is necessary.

THE REV. RICHARD L. BURSELL, rector of St. Mary's Church, Roundout, N. Y., is spoken of as likely to be one of the new American bishops in the Philippines.

MORE LIGHT IN SAMOA. Native District Governor Asks the President for a Teacher.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Commander Underwood, commandant of the naval station at Tutuila, Samoa, has transmitted a petition addressed to the President by Tuiamano, district governor of Manua, extending thanks for everything done by the United States government for the people of Samoa.

"In past years," says the native governor, "Samoa dwelt in the darkness and bloodshed, but now the sun comes forth; all people dwell in friendship and observe the beneficence of the government of the United States in the laws and orders, which have created peace and blessings among all men. There is protection when we dwell under the flag of the government of the United States. The district governor requests that a teacher be furnished to instruct the children and Commander Underwood concurs in this request."

Day's Incorporations.

Articles of incorporation filed with the secretary of state yesterday were as follows: The Interurban Culture and Social Club of Lafayette; president, Charles Jacks; vice president, Albert Kirkhof; secretary, J. S. Lund; treasurer, J. V. Everett. The Telephone Company of Worthington; capital stock, $10,000. The Walsh Hotel Co., of New York, directors, Isaac Bettman, Fremont McKee, Robert L. Palmer, William H. McKee, Harry E. Coe, Nelson G. Ball, John M. Hart, John S. Lewis, Charles G. Hunter. The Hotel Co. of Terre Haute; directors, Lee Rice, Verdie Lyons, Pleasant Gossage, Henry Black, Preston Morton. The 2nd Ohio Chiropractic college, capital stock of $500 is all represented in Indiana. Filed articles under the foreign corporation law.

House Coats and Gowns $4 to $25

Suggestions for Men

WE ISSUE GIFT CERTIFICATES for any amount. An order on us is a good present.

Overcoats, Rain Coats, Suits, House Coats, Smokers' Jackets, Bath Robes, Bath Suits, Rug Towels, Mitts, etc. Suspenders, Neckties, Suit Cases and Traveling Bags. Shirts, Night Gowns and Pajamas, Underwear, Hosiery, Neckwear, Hats, Gloves, Fall Dress Shoes, Protection.

Jewelry (a very select assortment), Scarf Pins, Cuff Buttons, Stud Buttons, Cuff Links, Cigarette Cases, Travelers' Companion Sets and Comb and Brush Sets, Watch Chains and Fobs.

Star Safety Razors. Two to seven-blade sets. The most acceptable present you can give a man. $3.00 to $15.00.

Hats of All Kinds

We specialize in a very fine quality of Silk and Opera Hats. There is no place to shop like our Toggery Shop.

OPERA HAT. We Set Aside Selections Made Now; Come Early.

38 EAST IN WASHINGTON ST.

THE TOGGERY SHOP'S HATS

Christmas Shopping Made Easy

There is nothing more appreciated than some article in wearing apparel FROM OUR SHOP. Every one knows if it is "Archibaldized" IT'S ALWAYS CORRECT.

Prompt and Careful Attention Given to Mail Orders.

Write Us for What You Want

Suggestions for Women

WE ISSUE GIFT CERTIFICATES for any amount. An order for Gloves is a nice present.

Buy a nice gown for her Christmas present, or a wrap of some kind, or look over this list for something more appropriate.

FURS—Novelty Fur Pieces, Sets, Scarfs and Muffs our specialty. RAIN COATS, SILK DRESS COATS, WAISTS of all kinds, Waist Waterers, House Sacques, Kimonos and Gowns.

HAND BAGS AND POCKET BOOKS, Bath Robes and Slippers, Pajamas, Gloves, Handkerchiefs.

STOCKS AND BELTS. Latest styles. Buckles, Brooches, etc. Extremely new things in Hat Pins.

ROSIERIE, Lilies and Silks. LIBERTY SCARFS. All imported, beautiful designs. Our Prices are Reasonable and Our Hatting Smart and Correct. One of our Fur Novelties. We will set aside selection made now—Come early.

38 EAST IN WASHINGTON ST.

GERRITT A. ARCHIBALD & CO.

HANNA'S FIGHT ON WOOD CAUSES TALK OF BREAK

Lobby Gossip in Washington Continues to Deal with Alleged Dissension.

RUMORS NOT VERIFIED

Bright Chat of the National Capital Dealing with Life in Office.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Washington has been agog for the last few weeks over stories that will not down that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express purpose of enabling the President and Mr. Hanna to talk the matter over. Imaginative minds insisted that Senator Hanna was hinting General Wood should not retire from the army, but that there is a rupture, or that a break is threatened, between President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio. A conference held at the White House between the two men was arranged, the gossip had it, for the express